

Cooperations, Joint Ventures, M+A – Consultation of Hillinger+Partner

The management consulting Hillinger+Partner performs a creative consultation for cooperations, joint ventures, merger and acquisitions (M+A), as well as business, and collaboration in a comprehensive and practical way, both for buyers and for sellers as customers on an individually synchronized costs- / success basis. The deep professional experiences are imported to the consultation of the company and the existing narrow contacts and networks of the management consulting are used during the consultation purposefully.

The owners of the buying and/or selling enterprises as well as their representatives and/or the partners of business and cooperation forms according to an agreed task catalog will be advised by H+P. Travel and research costs or other costs arise for the customer according to this cost basis.

If the customer would like to have an especially wide and deep exhaustion of the market possibilities the actions and the method mix are agreed individually. Hillinger+Partner can take over, accompany and design all wanted and reasonable tasks, therefore the entire process, as project engineering, careful personnel need analyses, requirement profile creation, organization and switching of advertisements in suitable media and other in newspapers, in technical journals and in the internet, direct recruiting, selection and evaluation of possible partners and candidates as well as screening, interviews, hit lists of suitable candidates, letter of intent, due diligence, contract vote, share deal / asset deal, cartel releasing, financing, postintegration. The costs for these in particular synchronized tasks are cashed up according to an individual agreement.

We take care of you finding the desired business partners!